The Golden Gates of Conscious Expansion

Welcome all who are here at this time of Great Change. The 11:11 2004 was the hardest hurdle of Gates to make it through but I see that many of you made it. There was much turmoil in your Beingness preceding the Gate closing. Many of you unloaded baggage at the door. A very hard thing to do is to let go of the old energies and leave it behind. You cannot move forward carrying the last negative lower vibrational energies around when moving into Euphoric Energies. The two just don't mix. You now have moved into an emotional consciousness transition of the 5 D where all things are to change or Manifest into Creation. You are Human Creators who can manifest and make a new 5 D world rise like a Butterfly who came out of the cocoon from which it lay dormant. I ask that you all be creators of your world for which you live. Dream the Dream, Live the Dream. It is only by your conscious effort that things will manifest themselves- your belief in yourselves and your future on this Star Planet you call Earth. Your caring ness of your brothers and sisters of humankind, come together in the I Am as like minded people and set examples for others to follow. You the Lightworkers and Starseeds are the ones to show others of the human population the way to becoming "One with All that Is". One with the Creator, one with the Universe, you the Starseeds and Lightworkers are to set the example for others to follow. For many of you, your Missions are about ready to begin. For many of you have been doing your Missions already. For some of you have been moaning and groaning about what it is that you will be doing- don't worry so much about it .for your time is coming very soon to start the work you were sent here to do.

There will be many Gate crossings in the near future. It is important that each and every one of you cross. No matter how difficult situations seem at that moment, uplift "You" into making it through the Gate, for all future Gate crossings are crucial at this time. For time is growing shorter and you are growing more and more aware of who you are and for where you came, don't let small things get you down. Seek out help when you need it and get the help you require in releasing the old energies. You cannot get through the Gates with pent up negative low vibrational energies or Karma left over from this life and past lives. There are many groups out there to assist in the Ascension process. It is up to you to do the work. It is required you do the work.

The Golden Triangles

The Golden Triangles that appear in pictures and in you head and sometimes placed in your hand by your Guide are the Gates of consciousness. These are the Doorways so many have written about in their writings. The Gates open and close at least 6 times a year. The Gates appear as 8:8 the Lions Gate, 11:11 the Consciousness Gate. When you move forward again and another Veil is lifted. 11:11 is a major Gate and so are all the Gates for they all have a special meaning to many of you at any given time of your growth. The 11:11 Gate is also important that many of you will get a new Guide, for a Shift in your Consciousness has manifested itself and a new Guide or Guides may come forward to work with you for a few months, or many months, in some cases for many years. New Guides come and go when there is a Gate opening and closing. Some of you may notice that the 8:8 Lions Gate is the usual Gate for your new Guide to appear. Think back about this .have you noticed particularly you get a new Guide it is at this particular Gate or is it the 11:11? It has to do with the numbers that appear all the time in front of you. Those numbers that appear very often, so many times. And these numbers have many meanings too! Like be ready for change .new Guide .makes sense!

The Golden Triangles - Add up to the Merkaba

When all these Gate Triangles manifest themselves in your Consciousness they become the final destination called the Merkaba. This is what YOU all are working up too! Many times you will see these in line drawings or Art created by the Artists who can see into other dimensions. These drawings may have a sub-conscious impact on you later down the line. But you may find yourselves drawn to the Art which in many cases is Geometry in motion. You can actually see the Art or Geometry change its shape to what it is that you require for it to work in your consciousness. And it is at this time the Art takes shape in your mind. It becomes the tool for progression in your human DNA changes and uplifting you into a higher consciousness that you seek. When you are ready you move forward again. This is done in increments so that the human body is allowed for the adjustments required and the right amount of time for the changes to take place. All in good Time!

Symbols Placed in your hands

There are many meanings for Symbol(s) manifestations:

- 1) A symbols placed in the hand can signify that the new Guide is connecting to you- a sort of initiation of energies bonding.
- 2) Receiving a symbol placed in your hand from a Galactic Loved one or family member. Many of you have Galactic families that you connect with on occasion- sometimes you are given your Galactic name in a symbol(s) laid in your hands. Seek out and find the meaning.
- 3) New healing symbols may be placed in your hand as a gift from the Guide for which you do healing through. This may happen several times to you over a course of a few months or years.
- 4) You may receive a Healing symbol that is meant for you personally to heal or connect with a healing energy.
- 5) Sometimes many of you have symbols placed in your heads by your Guide(s) and you need to be activated. You will be activated at the right time.

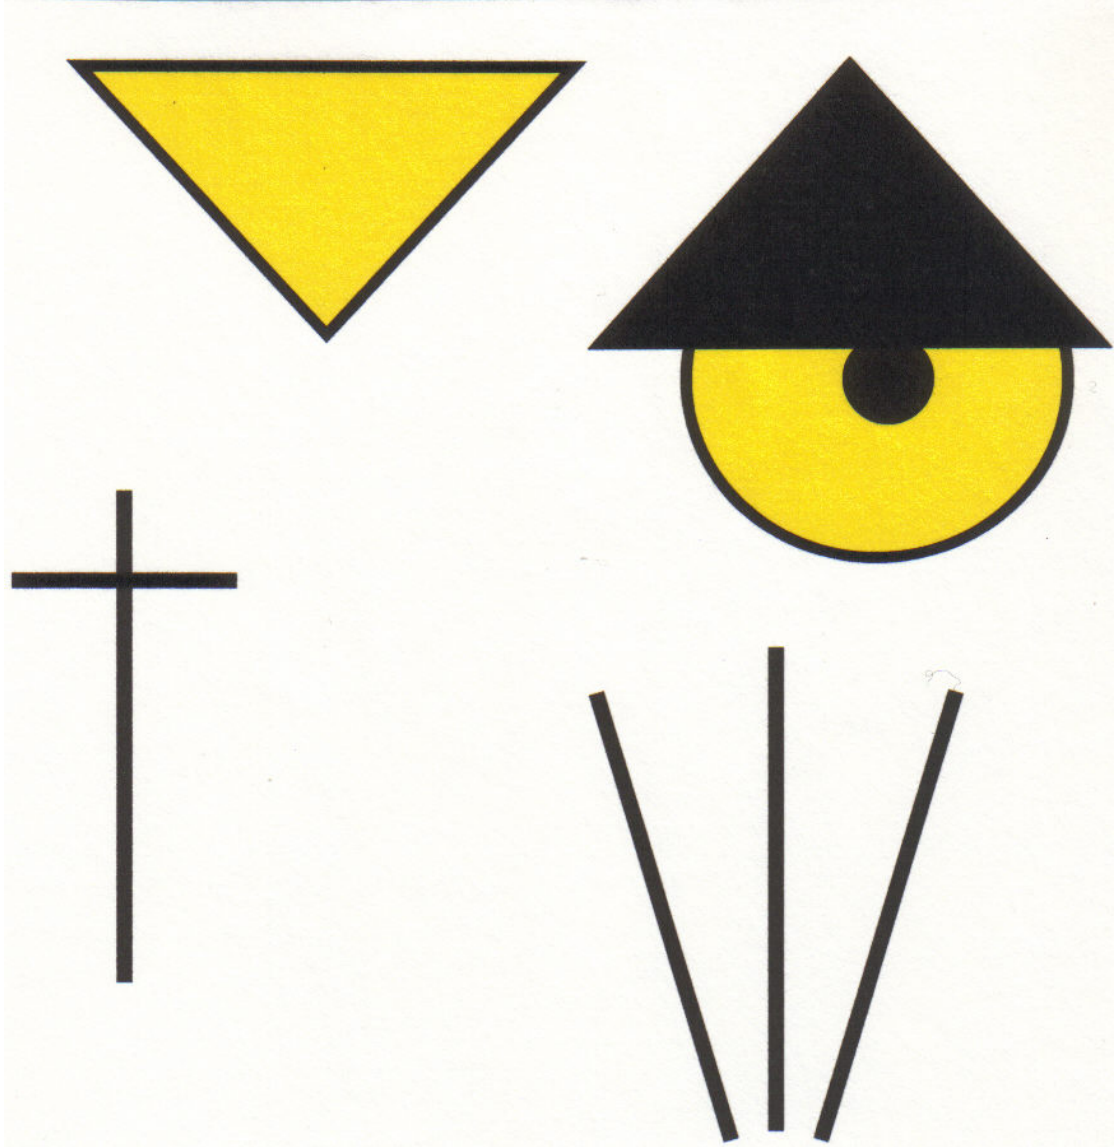

New Guides

Many of you will have Guides come and go. Some of you will have a Guide assigned to you for many years and even a lifetime. The important thing to remember is to be open to the new Guide coming in. The new Guide is there for a short period of time to help you in your growth and Consciousness Expansion. Allow them to work with you and help you move forward. Many of you will feel abandonment but this is because a Guide has left and a new one is coming in. This usually happens around the Gate openings and closings. It does take time for the Guide to release you and for the new guide to connect. The Guides do this through energies and it is called Resonating Energies or Resonating Vibrations. The releasing and the connecting is a process that is gradual for many and as you go up in your Vibration it becomes a quick process of connecting and releasing. You should focus on connecting with these new energies as quickly as possible.

Join groups that resonate with you!

Join groups that resonate with who you are and what you are all about. If the Vibration level of the Group feels right to you- get involved. The energies of a group are too much for you to integrate; I suggest you move on to another group that feels more like your kind of energies. Many times Groups have different energy levels. It is hard to cope with the different levels when you are trying to focus on moving up in your vibration. If the current group you are in is a lower vibration, it may not feel good for you to stay. You may have to move on. It is a conscious decision but in the long run it will be the best decision for you and your growth. When you see friction in groups, this is the best identifiable way of seeing different vibrational energy levels repel each other. It does not mean everyone is in disarray, it just means that the energies are very different and something has to give. You either move on or just let it go and ignore it. Discernment of these kinds of energies that are overlapping is a hard thing to do. The approach is usually done in the mind. Don't let yourself be sucked into 3 D energies when you are in the 5 D state of consciousness. Discern what is really going on and move past it. Letting discourse of energies consume you emotionally is allowing you emotionally be 3 D. Train yourself to deal with the different energies in their levels so you can discern their elements for what they really are- none being bad, just on different levels of vibration. Everyone needs time to grow in the higher vibrational frequencies. Most humans are not on the same level. Only when you meet someone on your level will you truly be aware of the differences. The closer you are to the top the lesser the humans there will be on the Higher Vibrational Octave. Be aware!

The Symbols of the New Energies of Light

The symbols of Energies of the Light

These Symbols are to activate the client's Healing DNA by putting the symbols on your forehead from your mind (Healer). Touch the forehead or 3rd eye of the human or animal with your fingertips of right hand gently. Then telepathically transfer these symbols to their 3rd eye of the client. If you are doing a mini attunement by phone...touch the symbol and then touch your third eye during the mini-attunement at the very beginning.

Then begin the mini-attunement of the "Healing Symbols" with the human or animal client.

The Symbols shown are to "Lock In" the "Healing Symbols" into the client's body. These symbols will activate the DNA to accept the Shamballa symbols to balance the body out during the mini-attunement. The Symbols will override the existing carbon base DNA present in the client's body. These Symbols will allow the "Healing Symbols" to go to the core of the client's "Beingness". The Symbols will also allow the DNA to start the DNA recoding process if it has not started already. Over time you will have memorized these symbols and they will always be released into the client's prior to the beginning of the mini-attunements wither in person or over the phone.

Now for the Good Stuff:

These symbols will stop any other Healing Modality from disrupting any of the mini-attunement of the "Healing Symbols" of the Shamballa 1024. The good thing is no one will be able to tamper with your work. Western medicine in the form of drugs, vaccines or flu shots or anything like that cannot manipulate any of the work you have put into place. It is safe from corruption. It is safe from any other form of Healing Modality that is administered as a secondary healing application. Holistic Medicine, Homeopathy, Vogel Crystal Healing, Crystal Healing in other forms, Laying of the Hands, Acupuncture, and etc for this list can go on forever.

Ascended Master St Germaine came to me one night in my sleep and put these into my head. I then transferred them to paper per Joelle's request and sent them out to the Shamballa 1024 healers. Many clients will see these symbols when they are given telepathically during a mini-attunement.
